Completing your Pooya account

The online integrated system of Ferdowsi University of Mashhad (POOYA) was launched at the start of 1382-1383 (2002). This system is the gateway for the student access to his/her personal, educational and welfare information. In this system all the facilities that the student will need exists and a student will constantly deal with this system throughout their educational period. When referring to this address http://pooya.um.ac.ir the login page to this system will appear, and students can access its menus and add their personal information after entering their student number and password to login. After graduating, students can use this gateway to view their grades and averages.

The first step of enrollment process for all students is to import their personal information into Pooya in Farsi and English.
